Praise YHWH
The Great King of ALL
Psalm 145

YHWH The Great King Psm 145

- Last of 7 acrostic poems. Recited often at synagogues.
- The intent of acrostic poems is like our “A to Z.”
“The entire alphabet, the source of all words, is marshalled in praise of God.”
- Outline options vary widely. Focus on “praise” & “kingdom.”

1) God’s Greatness Praised [v1-7]

2) God’s Gracious Acts/Deeds v8-14

3) God Gives To His People v15-21

Where is Jesus in this psalm?

YHWH The Great King Psm 145

1) God's Greatness Praised [v1-7]

Do we lift Him up & meditate on His name daily?

Have we told the next generation about His greatness?

His works of creation & powerful deliverance of Israel.

Their children memorized Exodus 34:6-7. Have we?

2) God's Gracious Acts/Deeds v8-14

3) God Gives To His People v15-21

YHWH The Great King Psm 145

1) God's Greatness Praised v1-7

2) God's Gracious Acts/Deeds [v8-14]

Verses echoing Ex 34 are all throughout OT [Jonah 4:1-4].

God is good to ALL & His Kingdom is eternal.

He is morally good; He delivers the needy & oppressed.

He sees us downcast & is willing to lift us up, bless us.

3) God Gives To His People v15-21

2) God's Gracious Acts/Deeds v8-14

3) God Gives To His People [v15-21]

Those who call Him truly in love & fear, He'll be near!

Like a good farmer He cares for all His animals.

May God help us to continually praise His name.
